Day 9: Austrian Alps via Liechtenstein & Innsbruck

Included meals: breakfast, dinner

Cross into Liechtenstein, a tiny Alpine principality that dates to the Holy Roman Empire. (And we mean tiny: With a population of just under 40,000 people, it's the sixth-smallest nation in the world.) Visit the capital of Vaduz and pass the royal family's namesake castle. Perched atop a hill, it has watched over the region since the 12th century and serves as the royal residence to this day.

Afterward, continue to Innsbruck—capital of the Austrian state of Tyrol and site of two Winter Olympics—where you'll hop off your bus for a walking tour with a local guide.

- Venture into the Old Town for a glimpse of two local legends: the Goldenes Dachl (the Golden Roof, covered in more than 2,600 gilded copper tiles) and the Stadtturm (the City Tower, a 150-foot Gothic sentry post).
- Pass the Hofburg and walk its cobblestone courtyard. Prized for its architectural design, this former Habsburg palace is one of the most important cultural sites in all of Austria.
- Enter the Baroque Cathedral of St. James, an 18th-century structure that houses the “Maria Hilf” (“Mary of Succor”), one of the most venerated works of Marian art in the Christian world.

Then, travel to the Austrian Alps and sit down for an included dinner, served with beer or wine.

Day 10: Free day in the Austrian Alps Region

Included meals: breakfast

Day 3: Mount Pilatus

From $145.00 . Visit the link above for pricing info.

(4.5 hours, departs in the afternoon)

This scenic excursion begins with a cruise on Lake Lucerne. After docking, ascend 7,000-foot Mount Pilatus on the world's steepest cogwheel railway.

Legend holds that the mountain was named for Pontius Pilate, blown here by the devil after the Crucifixion.

From the peak, the views of the Alps are stunning; on a clear day, you can see for 200 miles. Toward the end of your trip, you'll return to the base of the mountain via gondola. Please note: The cruise and cogwheel railway only run from mid-May through October. During the winter months, this excursion includes the cable car ride only. If the cogwheel railway is unavailable, you'll enjoy lunch on the mountain.

Day 10: Bavarian Castle & Lunch

From $125.00 . Visit the link above for pricing info.

(7.5 hours, departs in the morning, lunch included)

Head into the mountains of Bavaria to visit the fairy-tale Neuschwanstein Castle, which is believed to be the inspiration for Disneyland's castle. This regal castle, commissioned by Bavaria's Mad King Ludwig II, offers breathtaking views and a glimpse into the king's fantastical vision. Start with a photo stop to capture its iconic beauty before embarking on a guided tour of its rooms, such as the Throne Hall, adorned with stunning murals depicting German folklore and medieval legends. Don't forget to keep an eye out for the numerous homages to swans, the symbolic animal of the king's family. Enjoy an included lunch at a local restaurant before heading back to the hotel. Please note: On some departures, a shuttle bus may be offered to take travelers up the hill to Neuschwanstein. When shuttles are not running, the path to the castle is mostly paved road, but it's steep and the walk can take approximately 20–30 minutes. Winter months are prone to inclement weather, in the event of which shuttle buses might not run. This means the walk to the castle may be slippery and covered in snow.

Day 13: Dachau

From $40.00 . Visit the link above for pricing info. (4 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Once a typical German town, Dachau served as the first Nazi concentration camp during World War II. Visit this somber site, which has since been transformed into a Holocaust memorial museum that serves as a testament to the strength of the human spirit. You'll take a self-guided audio tour through Dachau's poignant exhibits, which are echoed by the memorials to the victims that adorn the grounds.
